

THE FILTERED 50

Where performance and diversification meet

* The Filters

The Filtered 50 investment strategy offers a groundbreaking approach to portfolio management by leveraging a highly selective and meticulously crafted methodology. Utilizing 17 sophisticated filters across a universe of equities from North America and Europe, the strategy identifies top-performing assets with the highest potential for sustained outperformance. All positions are allocated on an equal-weight basis to ensure balanced exposure and to prevent concentration risk, while the liquidity of each holding is continuously monitored to maintain efficient tradability. In addition to its rigorous fundamental and quantitative screening, the strategy incorporates a momentum component designed to capture securities exhibiting persistent positive price dynamics. Its performance has consistently exceeded traditional benchmark indices, making it a compelling choice for sophisticated investors seeking superior long-term results.

Our filtered 50 fund has achieved an performance of 18.03% over 2025 and long term back testing shows that its consistently and strongly outperforming its benchmarks. We achieve this by strategically differentiating our investments, which not only drives superior returns but also lowers overall portfolio risk compared to traditional benchmarks and other investment funds. It's about smarter diversification for better, more secure growth.

* The team

The Filtered Funds is led by three founders with extensive experience in private banking, portfolio management, and responsible investing. Their backgrounds include senior roles in family offices, leading European private banks, and global wealth-management institutions. Collectively, they bring decades of expertise in equity strategy design, UHNW advisory, ethical portfolio screening, and CSR integration. One founder built a €200M responsible-investment advisory business from scratch, while others have managed complex portfolios for high-net-worth and institutional clients. This blend of institutional discipline, entrepreneurial execution, and quantitative insight forms the foundation of The Filtered Funds' research-driven and transparent investment approach.
